

GOODBYE, LENIN! (2003) 2h 1m

Alex's mum, Christiane falls into a coma after watching her son being arrested. Alex is released and, to help his mother recover faster, he fakes that the GDR regime (communist East Germany) is still in force and this puts him into some hilarious situations. You will be able to pick up some German vocab and also learn about the history and culture of Germany during that time.

LOLA RENNT (1998 )

1h 21m

This film is an experimental thriller and an exciting watch. Lola has 20 minutes to bring 100,000 Deutschmarks to her boyfriend or he will steal from a store. If the money is not returned, there will be consequences. We see three possible scenarios, depending on Lola's encounters. However, the plot is repetitive enough for you to follow along easily.

German Film Recommendations

THE EDUKATORS (2004) 2h 7m

This film depicts Peter and Jan, anarchists, who are 'edukators' that break into rich people's homes to send them a message but never steal. Peter's girlfriend, Jule, convinces them to break into a rich man's home to whom she owes money, but she mistakenly leaves evidence behind and they must return to retrieve it. From this film, you can understand everyday speech. It will also help you to enhance your pronunciation and accents.
